Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Chief Financial Officer Appointment

On October 24, 2023, the board of directors (the “Board”) of Verastem, Inc. (the “Company”) appointed Daniel Calkins as Chief Financial Officer of the Company. As previously disclosed, Mr. Calkins has served as the Company’s principal financial officer and principal accounting officer on an interim basis since October 31, 2022.

In connection with his appointment, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Calkins (the “Agreement”), dated as of October 24, 2023, governing the terms of Mr. Calkins’s employment for an indefinite term. The Agreement replaces and supersedes any prior existing employment agreement between Mr. Calkins and the Company. Under the Agreement, Mr. Calkins will receive an initial annual base salary of $300,000 and is eligible for an annual bonus target of 35% of his base salary, which will be pro-rated for the remainder of the year ended December 31, 2023, with Mr. Calkins’ 2023 annual bonus for the period prior to October 19, 2023 determined on the terms as in effect prior to October 19, 2023 and pro-rated for that portion of the year.

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, on October 24, 2023 (the “Grant Date”), the Company granted Mr. Calkins an option to purchase 25,000 shares of its common stock at an exercise price equal to $6.89 per share, the closing price of the Company’s common stock as reported by the Nasdaq Capital Market on the Grant Date, to vest as to 25% of the shares on the one-year anniversary of the Grant Date, and as to an additional 6.25% of the shares at the end of each successive three-month period following the first anniversary of the Grant Date until the fourth anniversary of the Grant Date, subject to Mr. Calkins’ continuing service with the Company on the applicable vesting date.

Under the Agreement and subject to Mr. Calkins’ execution and non-revocation of an effective release of claims, if Mr. Calkins’ employment is terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined in the Agreement) or by Mr. Calkins for Good Reason (as defined in the Agreement), he will be entitled to receive the following severance benefits: (i) nine months of base salary continuation, (ii) if Mr. Calkins exercises his right to continue participation in the Company’s health and dental plans under the federal law known as COBRA, a monthly cash amount equal to the full premium cost of that participation for nine months (or, if earlier, until the time when Mr. Calkins becomes eligible to enroll in the health or dental plan of a new employer), and (iii) any base salary earned, but not yet paid, through the date of termination and any bonus which has been awarded, but not yet paid, on the date of termination.

If Mr. Calkins’ employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Calkins for Good Reason, in either case within 90 days prior to or within 18 months following, a Change of Control (as defined in the Agreement), subject to Mr. Calkins’ execution and non-revocation of an effective release of claims, he will instead be entitled to receive the following severance benefits: (i) a lump sum amount equal to 12 months of his base salary, (ii) if Mr. Calkins exercises his right to continue participation in the Company’s health and dental plans under the federal law known as COBRA, a monthly cash amount equal to the full premium cost of that participation for 12 months (or, if earlier, until the time when Mr. Calkins becomes eligible to enroll in the health or dental plan of a new employer), (iii) a pro-rata portion of his target annual bonus amount for the year in which the termination occurs, calculated based on the number of days Mr. Calkins was employed by the Company in such year, (iv) accelerated vesting of all outstanding stock options, restricted stock and restricted stock units held by Mr. Calkins that, by their terms, vest only based on the passage of time, and (v) any bonus which has been awarded, but not yet paid on the date of termination. In addition, upon a Change of Control, any then unvested stock options, restricted stock and restricted stock units which are outstanding as of the effective date and which, by their terms, vest based on the achievement of specified performance criteria will vest to the extent they are not assumed or continued by the acquirer in such Change of Control.

The foregoing summary of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the copy of the Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by this reference.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement"), dated as of October 24, 2023, is by and between Verastem, Inc. (the "Company"), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 117 Kendrick Street, Suite 500, Needham, MA 02494, and Daniel Calkins (the "Executive").

WHEREAS, the Executive has certain experience and expertise that qualify him to provide management direction and leadership for the Company.

WHEREAS, the Company now wishes to employ the Executive to serve as its Chief Financial Officer.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Company offers and the Executive accepts employment upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Term, Position and Duties. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company hereby offers and the Executive hereby accepts employment with the Company to serve as its Chief Financial Officer, reporting to the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. The Executive agrees to perform the duties of the Executive's position and such other duties as reasonably may be assigned to the Executive from time to time. Subject to proper approval of the President and Chief Executive Officer, the Executive may join the board of directors or advisory committee of up to two companies, provided such endeavors do not, individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder or breach any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Employee Non-Solicitation, Non-Competition, Confidential Information and Inventions Assignment Agreement referenced below. The Executive also agrees that while employed by the Company, the Executive will devote one hundred percent (100%) of the Executive's business time and the Executive's reasonable commercial efforts, business judgment, skill and knowledge exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and to the discharge of the Executive's duties and responsibilities for it.

2. Compensation and Benefits. During the Executive's employment as the Company's Chief Financial Officer, as compensation for all services performed by the Executive for the Company and subject to his performance of his duties and responsibilities for the Company, pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, the Company will provide the Executive the following pay and benefits:

(a) Base Salary; Annual Bonus. The Company will pay the Executive a base salary at the rate of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000) per year. Such amount shall be payable in accordance with the regular payroll practices of the Company for its executives, as in effect from time to time, and subject to increase from time to time by the Board of Directors Of the Company (the "Board") in its discretion. The Executive shall have the opportunity to earn an annual target bonus measured against performance criteria to be determined by the Board (or committee thereof) of thirty five percent (35%) of the Executive's then current annual base salary (the "Target Bonus"), with the actual amount of the bonus, if any, to be determined by the Board (or committee thereof). For 2023, the Target Bonus amount shall be pro-rated for the portion of the year beginning on October 19, 2023. Any bonus amount payable by the Company, if any, shall be paid no later than March 15 of the year following the year in which such bonus is earned. The Executive must remain employed through the last day of the year for which the bonus is earned in order to be eligible to receive any bonus.

(b) Stock Options. Subject to Board approval and at all times pursuant to the Verastem, Inc. 2021 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan") and any applicable stock option award agreement or restricted stock unit award, the Company will grant the Executive:

i. a non-statutory stock option to purchase 25,000 shares (the "Time-based Award") of the Company's Common Stock, $0.0001 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), to be granted as soon as practicable on or after the date hereof (the "Grant Date"), to vest as to 25% of the shares subject to the option on the first anniversary of the Grant Date and as to an additional 6.25% of the shares at the end of each successive three-month period following the first anniversary of the Grant Date until the fourth anniversary of the Grant Date (with the number of shares vesting on each vesting date rounded down to the nearest whole share, except with respect to the final vesting date on which all remaining unvested shares shall vest), provided that the Executive continues to serve as an employee of or other service provider to the Company on each such vesting date, and to have a purchase price per share equal to the fair market value of a share of the Common Stock on the Grant Date (determined to be the closing price of a share of Common Stock on the Grant Date); and

(c) Participation in Employee Benefit Plans. The Executive will be eligible to participate in all Employee Benefit Plans from time to time in effect for employees of the Company generally, except to the extent such plans are duplicative of benefits otherwise provided the Executive under this Agreement (e.g., severance pay) or under any other agreement. The Executive's participation will be subject to the terms of the applicable plan documents and generally applicable Company policies. The Company may alter, modify, add to or delete its Employee Benefit Plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive. For purposes of this Agreement, "Employee Benefit Plan" shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in Section 3(3) of ERISA, as amended from time to time.

(d) Business Expenses. The Company will pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of his duties and responsibilities for the Company, subject to any maximum annual limit and other restrictions on such expenses set by the Company and to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as it may specify from time to time. Any such payment or reimbursement that would constitute nonqualified deferred compensation subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code (including the regulations promulgated thereunder, "Section 409A") shall be subject to the following additional rules: (i) no payment or reimbursement of any such expense shall affect the Executive's right to payment or reimbursement of any other such expense in any other taxable year; (ii) payment or reimbursement of the expense shall be made, if at all, not later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred; and (iii) the right to payment or reimbursement shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for any other benefit.

3. Confidential Information, Non-Competition and Proprietary Information. As a condition of employment, the Executive has executed or will execute the Company's standard Employee Non-Solicitation, Non-Competition, Confidential Information and Inventions Assignment Agreement (the "Non-Compete Agreement"). It is understood and agreed that a material breach by the Executive of the Employee Non-Compete Agreement shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

4. Termination of Employment. The Executive's employment under this Agreement shall continue until terminated pursuant to this Section 4.

(a) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment for "Cause" upon written notice to the Executive received setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the Cause. The following shall constitute Cause for termination: (i) the Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, the Executive's material duties and responsibilities to the Company or its Affiliates which, if capable of being remedied, is not remedied within ten (10) days of written notice thereof; (ii) material breach by the Executive of any material provision of this Agreement or any other material agreement with the Company or any of its Affiliates which, if capable of being remedied, is not remedied within ten (10) days of written notice thereof; (iii) fraud, embezzlement or other dishonesty with respect to the Company or any of its Affiliates; or (iv) the Executive's commission of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude.

(b) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment at any time other than for Cause upon written notice to the Executive.

(c) The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason by providing notice to the Company of the condition giving rise to the Good Reason no later than thirty (30) days following the occurrence of the condition, by giving the Company thirty (30) days to remedy the condition and by terminating employment for Good Reason within thirty (30) days thereafter if the Company fails to remedy the condition. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean, without the Executive's consent, the occurrence of any one or more of the following events: (i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's responsibilities, duties or authority, provided that neither (x) the Company's failure to continue the Executive's appointment or election as a director or officer of any of its Affiliates nor (y) any diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's responsibilities, duties or authority that is reasonably related to a diminution of the business of the Company or any of its Affiliates shall constitute "Good Reason"; (ii) a material reduction in the Executive's base salary; (iii) a material breach by the Company of any material provision of this Agreement or any other material agreement with Executive; or (iv) relocation of the Executive's principal place of business more than forty (40) miles from the then-current location of the Executive's principal place of business.

(d) The Executive may terminate his employment with the Company other than for Good Reason at any time upon sixty (60) days' notice to the Company. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment in accordance with this Section 4(d), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive his then current base salary for the period so waived.

(e) This Agreement shall automatically terminate in the event of the Executive's death during employment. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment, upon notice to the Executive, in the event the Executive becomes disabled during employment and, as a result, is unable to continue to perform substantially all of his material duties and responsibilities under this Agreement for one-hundred and twenty (120) days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. If any question shall arise as to whether the Executive is disabled to the extent that the Executive is unable to perform substantially all of his material duties and responsibilities for the Company and its Affiliates, the Executive shall, at the Company's request and expense, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company to whom the Executive or the Executive's guardian, if any, has no reasonable objection to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such a question arises and the Executive fails to submit to the requested medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

5. Severance Payments and Other Matters Related to Termination.

(a) Termination pursuant to Section 4(b) or 4(c). Except as provided in Section 5(c) below, in the event of termination of the Executive's employment either by the Company other than for Cause pursuant to Section 4(b) of this Agreement (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not include a termination due to death or disability under Section 4(e) of this Agreement) or by the Executive for Good Reason pursuant to Section 4(c) of this Agreement, or as a result of the Company's delivery of a notice of non-renewal in accordance with Section 1(a) of this Agreement:

i. The Company shall pay the Executive's then-current annual base salary for a period of nine (9) months in accordance with the Company's payroll practice then in effect, beginning on the Payment Commencement Date.

ii. If the Executive is participating in the Company's group health plan and/or dental plan at the time the Executive's employment terminates, and the Executive exercises his right to continue participation in those plans under the federal law known as COBRA, or any successor law, the Company will pay the Executive a monthly cash amount equal to the full premium cost of that participation (the "Benefits Payment") for nine (9) months following the date on which the Executive's employment with the Company terminates or, if earlier, until the date the Executive becomes eligible to enroll in the health (or, if applicable, dental) plan of a new employer, payable in accordance with regular payroll practices for benefits beginning on the Payment Commencement Date.

iii. The Company will also pay the Executive on the date of termination any base salary earned but not paid through the date of termination (collectively, the "Accrued Amounts"). In addition, the Company will pay the Executive any bonus which has been awarded to the Executive, but not yet paid on the date of termination of his employment, payable in a lump sum on the later of such date when bonuses are paid to executives of the Company generally in accordance with the timing rules of Section 2(a) and the Payment Commencement Date.

iv. Any obligation of the Company to provide the Executive severance payments or other benefits under this Section 5(a) (other than the Accrued Amounts) is conditioned on the Executive's signing, returning and not revoking an effective release of claims in the form provided by the Company (the "Employee Release") within the deadline specified therein (and in all events within sixty (60) days following the termination of the Executive's employment), which release shall not apply to (i) claims for indemnification in the Executive's capacity as an officer or director of the Company under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, By-laws or agreement, if any, providing for director or officer indemnification, (ii) rights to receive insurance coverage and payments under any policy maintained by the Company and (iii) rights to receive retirement benefits that are accrued and fully vested at the time of the Executive's termination and rights under such plans protected by ERISA. Any severance payments to be made in the form of salary continuation pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company, and will begin on the Payment Commencement Date but shall be retroactive to the date of termination. The Executive agrees to provide the Company prompt notice of the Executive's eligibility to participate in the health plan and, if applicable, dental plan of any new employer. The Executive further agrees to repay any overpayment of health benefit premiums made by the Company hereunder.

(b) Termination other than pursuant to Section 4(b) or 4(c). In the event of any termination of the Executive's employment, other than a termination by the Company pursuant to Section 4(b) of this Agreement or a termination by the Executive for Good Reason pursuant to Section 4(c) of this Agreement, the Company will pay the Executive the Accrued Amounts. In addition, the Company will pay the Executive any bonus which has been awarded to the Executive, but not yet paid on the date of termination of the Executive's employment, at such time when bonuses are paid to executives of the Company generally in accordance with the timing rules of Section 2(a). The Company shall have no other payment obligations to the Executive under this Agreement.

(c) Upon a Change of Control. If, within ninety (90) days prior to a Change of Control or within eighteen (18) months following a Change of Control (as defined in Section 6 hereof), the Company or any successor thereto terminates the Executive's employment other than for Cause pursuant to Section 4(b) of this Agreement (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not include a termination due to death or disability under Section 4(e) of this Agreement), the Executive's employment terminates as a result of the Company's delivery of a notice of non-renewal in accordance with Section 1(a) of this Agreement, or the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason pursuant to Section 4(c) of this Agreement, then, in lieu of any payments to the Executive or on the Executive's behalf under Section 5(a) hereof:

i. All of the Executive's then-unvested stock options, restricted stock and restricted stock units which, by their terms, vest only based on the passage of time (disregarding any acceleration of the vesting of such options, restricted stock or restricted stock units based on individual or Company performance) that are outstanding immediately prior to the date of termination shall (notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the applicable award agreement) remain outstanding and eligible to vest until the Payment Commencement Date and, subject to Section 5(c)(vi), automatically become fully vested as of the Payment Commencement Date.

ii. The Company shall pay, on the Payment Commencement Date, a lump sum payment equal to twelve (12) months of the Executive's then-current annual base salary; provided, however, that if such termination occurs prior to a Change of Control, such severance payments shall be made at the time and in the manner set forth in Section 5(a)(i) during the period beginning on the date of termination through the date of the Change of Control with any severance remaining to be paid under this Section 5(c)(ii) payable in a lump sum on the closing date of the Change of Control (or, if later, the Payment Commencement Date).

iii. If the Executive is participating in the Company's group health plan and/or dental plan at the time the Executive's employment terminates, and the Executive exercises his right to continue participation in those plans under the federal law known as COBRA, or any successor law, the Company will pay the Executive the Benefits Payment for twelve (12) months following the date on which the Executive's employment with the Company terminates or, if earlier, until the date the Executive becomes eligible to enroll in the health (or, if applicable, dental) plan of a new employer, with such amount payable on a pro-rata basis in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices for benefits beginning on the Payment Commencement Date.

iv. The Company shall pay the Executive a pro-rata portion of his Target Bonus for the year in which the date of termination occurs, calculated based on the number of days the Executive has been employed by the Company in such year and payable on the Payment Commencement Date.

v. The Company will also pay the Executive the Accrued Amounts. In addition, the Company will pay the Executive any bonus which has been awarded to the Executive, but not yet paid on the date of termination of his employment, payable in a lump sum on the later of such date when bonuses are paid to executives of the Company generally in accordance with the timing rules of Section 2(a) and the Payment Commencement Date.

vi. Any obligation of the Company to provide the Executive severance payments or other benefits under this Section 5(c) (other than the Accrued Amounts) is conditioned on the Executive's signing, returning and not revoking the Employee Release by the deadline specified therein (and in all events within sixty (60) days following the termination of the Executive's employment), which release shall not apply to (i) claims for indemnification in the Executive's capacity as an officer or director of the Company under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, By-laws or agreement, if any, providing for director or officer indemnification, (ii) rights to receive insurance coverage and payments under any policy maintained by the Company and (iii) rights to receive retirement benefits that are accrued and fully vested at the time of the Executive's termination and rights under such plans protected by ERISA. The Executive agrees to provide the Company prompt notice of the Executive's eligibility to participate in the health plan and, if applicable, dental plan of any new employer. The Executive further agrees to repay any overpayment of health benefit premiums made by the Company hereunder.

(d) Except for any right the Executive may have under applicable law to continue participation in the Company's group health and dental plans under COBRA, or any successor law, benefits shall terminate in accordance with the terms of the applicable benefit plans based on the date of termination of the Executive's employment, without regard to any continuation of base salary or other payment to the Executive following termination. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if the payment by the Company of the Benefits Payments will subject or expose the Company to taxes or penalties, the Executive and the Company agree to renegotiate the provisions of Section 5(a)(ii) or 5(c)(iii), as applicable, in good faith and enter into a substitute arrangement pursuant to which the Company will not be subjected or exposed to taxes or penalties and the Executive will be provided with payments or benefits with an economic value that is no less than the economic value of the Benefits Payments.

(e) Upon a Change of Control, any then-unvested stock options, restricted stock and restricted stock units which are outstanding as of the effective date and which, by their terms, vest based on the achievement of specified performance criteria shall (notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the applicable award agreement), to the extent not assumed or continued by the acquirer in such Change of Control on substantially identical terms, become vested as of the consummation of the Change of Control.

(f) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided in this Agreement or if necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of other surviving provisions, including without limitation the Executive's obligations under Section 3 of this Agreement and under the Employee Non-Solicitation, Non-Competition, Confidential Information and Inventions Assignment Agreement. The obligation of the Company to make payments to the Executive or on the Executive's behalf under Section 5 of this Agreement is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued full performance of the Executive's obligations under Section 3 hereof, under the Employee Non-Solicitation, Non-Competition, Confidential Information and Inventions Assignment Agreement to be executed herewith, and under any subsequent agreement between the Executive and the Company or any of its Affiliates relating to confidentiality, non-competition, proprietary information or the like.

6. Definitions. For purposes of this agreement; the following definitions apply:

The Executive agrees that he will not disclose to or use on behalf of the Company any proprietary information of a third party without that party’s consent.

8. Withholding; Other Tax Matters. Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) all payments required to be made by the Company hereunder to Executive shall be subject to the withholding of such amounts, if any, relating to tax and other payroll deductions as the Company may reasonably determine it should withhold pursuant to any applicable law or regulation, and (b) all severance payments and benefits payable pursuant to Sections 5(a) and 5(c) hereof shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto.

9. Assignment. Neither the Executive nor the Company may make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest in it, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the Executive’s consent to one of its Affiliates or to any Person with whom the Company shall hereafter affect a reorganization, consolidate with, or merge into or to whom it transfers all or substantially all of its properties or assets. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Executive and the Company, and each of our respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

10. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

11. Miscellaneous. This Agreement, together with the Employee Non-Solicitation, Non-Competition, Confidential Information and Inventions Assignment Agreement, sets forth the entire agreement between the Executive and the Company and replaces all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Executive’s employment. Exhibit A

Payments Subject to Section 409A

1. Subject to this Exhibit A, any severance payments that may be due under the Agreement shall begin only upon or following the date of the Executive's "separation from service" (determined as set forth below) which occurs on or after the termination of Executive's employment. The following rules shall apply with respect to distribution of the severance payments, if any, to be provided to Executive under the Agreement, as applicable:

(a) It is intended that each installment of the severance payments under the Agreement provided under shall be treated as a separate "payment" for purposes of Section 409A. Neither the Company nor Executive shall have the right to accelerate or defer the delivery of any such payments except to the extent specifically permitted or required by Section 409A.

(b) If, as of the date of Executive's "separation from service" from the Company, Executive is not a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A), then each installment of the severance payments shall be made on the dates and terms set forth in the Agreement.

(c) If, as of the date of Executive's "separation from service" from the Company, Executive is a "specified employee" (within the meaning of Section 409A), then:

(i) Each installment of the severance payments due under the Agreement that, in accordance with the dates and terms set forth herein, will in all circumstances, regardless of when Executive's separation from service occurs, be paid within the short-term deferral period (as defined under Section 409A) shall be treated as a short-term deferral within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(4) to the maximum extent permissible under Section 409A and shall be paid on the dates and terms set forth in the Agreement; and

(ii) Each installment of the severance payments due under the Agreement that is not described in this Exhibit A, Section 1(c)(i) and that would, absent this subsection, be paid within the six-month period following Executive's "separation from service" from the Company shall not be paid until the date that is six months and one day after such separation from service (or, if earlier, Executive's death), with any such installments that are required to be delayed being accumulated during the six-month period and paid in a lump sum on the date that is six months and one day following Executive's separation from service and any subsequent installments, if any, being paid in accordance with the dates and terms set forth herein; provided, however, that the preceding provisions of this sentence shall not apply to any installment of payments if and to the maximum extent that that such installment is deemed to be paid under a separation pay plan that does not provide for a deferral of compensation by reason of the application of Treasury Regulation 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii) (relating to separation pay upon an involuntary separation from service). Any installments that qualify for the exception under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii) must be paid no later than the last day of Executive's second taxable year following the taxable year in which the separation from service occurs.

2. The determination of whether and when Executive's separation from service from the Company has occurred shall be made and in a manner consistent with, and based on the presumptions set forth in, Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(h). Solely for purposes of this Exhibit A, Section 2, "Company" shall include all persons with whom the Company would be considered a single employer under Section 414(b) and 414(c) of the Code.

3. The Company makes no representation or warranty and shall have no liability to Executive or to any other person if any of the provisions of the Agreement (including this Exhibit) are determined to constitute deferred compensation subject to Section 409A but that do not satisfy an exemption from, or the conditions of, that section.
